

For Immediate Release
March 27, 2022

CONTACT: Sabrina Written, Marketing & PR Director
(504) 523-6221, EXT 163
sabrina.written@clovernola.org

Johnny Sansone and the All-Stars Band Perform Benefit Concert for Clover, Monday, May 1st, 6 to 8 pm

Clover (formerly Kingsley House) is thrilled to announce that New Orleans musician, songwriter and recording artist Johnny Sansone and the All-Stars Band will perform a live benefit concert on Monday, May 1st, 6 to 8 PM on Clover's Campus, located at 1600 Constance Street in New Orleans.

Tickets are $65 and can be purchased at www.clovernola.org/sansone. Food & drinks are included with the ticket price. Proceeds from the concert directly benefit Clover's life transforming programs and services that educate children, strengthen families and build community.

This will be the second benefit concert that the "Into Your Blue's" artist graciously performs for Clover and the first time that Johnny has shared the stage with the All Stars Band featuring John Fohl, Jeffrey Bridges, Russ Broussard, Tom Worrel, Joe Cabral, Michael Skinkus and Roberto Luti.

"We are tremendously grateful to Johnny for generously sharing his time and talent and to Dr. Eric and Barb Scher, longtime friends and supporters of Clover, for spearheading this concert series in support of children and families in our community," said Keith Liederman, Ph.D., Chief Executive Officer of Clover.

"We look forward to welcoming friends, old and new, on campus for an evening to remember."

Visit clovernola.org/sansone for more details. Can't make it, but want to support Clover's mission? Donations can be made online at www.clovernola.org/give.

About Clover

Founded in 1896 with a mission to educate children, strengthen families and build community, Clover (formerly known as Kingsley House) envisions a city and region where all young children are ready to succeed, and all citizens are healthy and economically stable. Recognizing that under-served families are at risk of being caught in an intractable cycle of poverty, the organization is committed to ensuring that individuals and families have the support necessary to be successful at all stages of life.

To accomplish its goals, the historic nonprofit joins forces with dedicated community partners to collectively work with families to fuel economic growth and social change in our city, state, and region. For more about Clover's mission and how to get involved, visit www.clovernola.org.

###