Clover Cares Adult Day Care Honors 20 Veterans in Heartfelt Veterans Day Celebration

New Orleans, LA – Clover Cares Adult Day Care hosted a moving Veterans Day celebration this week, recognizing 20 veterans in its program for their service and sacrifice. The event featured a presentation of certificates of recognition, heartfelt words of gratitude, and concluded with a special luncheon attended by veterans, their families, and community members. Senator Royce Duplessis joined the festivities to pay tribute to the honorees, underscoring the importance of supporting those who have served our country.

Clover Cares Adult Day Care is a vital resource for at-risk seniors, veterans, and medically fragile adults in the Greater New Orleans area. By providing person-centered care and effective care management, Clover helps individuals improve personal health outcomes while continuing to live at home in their community. The program's tailored services and activities address each participant's unique needs, values, and goals.

As the only Adult Day Health Care in the Department of Veterans Affairs' Referral Program in the Greater New Orleans area, Clover offers veterans an unparalleled level of support. In addition to daily high-quality care for vulnerable individuals, the program helps to ease the emotional, physical, and financial toll on family caregivers.

"We're proud to honor these remarkable veterans, not just for their service but for the enduring impact they've made on our community and country. At Clover, we are dedicated to supporting their health, well-being, and quality of life every day through compassionate care and meaningful programs and services that celebrate their contributions and address their unique needs," said Keith Liederman, Ph.D., CEO of Clover.
