

For Immediate Release
September 26, 2025

Contact: Sabrina Written, Marketing & Communications Director
Email: Sabrina.written@clovernola.org; P: 504-523-6221, X 163

A Wickedly Good Time: Clover's Harvest Moon Masquerade Blends Festivity and Fundraising on Halloween Eve

Clover will host its annual Harvest Moon Masquerade on Thursday, October 30, 2025, from 6–10 p.m. at The Josephine on Napoleon. The signature fall fundraiser, presented by Cathy & Walter Isaacson and Gulf Coast Bank & Trust, benefits Clover's early childhood education, adult day care, workforce development, and resident engagement programs.

Guests will enjoy epicurean delights by Dickie Brennan & Co., live music by Raw Deal, immersive entertainment, a spirited costume contest, auction, and an engaging evening hosted by Emmy-nominated TV personality Malik Mingo.

This year's event is co-chaired by four dynamic community leaders: Neal Bodenheimer, Kea Sherman, and Jenny & Robb Vorhoff.

- Neal Bodenheimer – Managing Partner of CureCo., the group behind Cure, Cane & Table, and VALS. A James Beard Award winner and VinePair's Drinks Professional of the Year, he is recognized nationally for shaping modern cocktail culture.
- Kea Sherman – Clover Board President and Policy Counsel at Van Ness Feldman LLP. She founded Emerge Louisiana and Les Femmes PAC, championing women's leadership in politics and advocacy.
- Jenny Vorhoff – Founder and lead designer of Studio Riga Interiors. After two decades in New York, she returned to New Orleans and now serves on boards including French Quarter Fest, NOMA, Kids Join the Fight, and Clover's Advisory Council.
- Robb Vorhoff – Managing Director and Global Head of Healthcare at General Atlantic. With 20+ years of experience guiding leading healthcare companies, he also serves on multiple corporate and nonprofit boards, including The Idea Village.

"Every year, the Harvest Moon Masquerade lights up the season with an unforgettable evening of celebration, and this year we're turning up the magic with a Halloween costume twist," said Kea Sherman, Clover Board President and Event Co-Chair. "We're thrilled to welcome community leaders, partners, and supporters who share Clover's vision for helping children and families thrive—and we're especially grateful to our sponsors and host committee for making this spooktacular night possible."

Tickets and sponsorships are available at clovernola.org/masquerade.

About the 2025 Harvest Moon Masquerade

The Harvest Moon Masquerade is Clover's signature fall fundraiser, bringing together community leaders, supporters, and partners for an evening of celebration and impact. The 2025 Host Committee includes: Lindsey Brower Beard, Dickie Brennan, Carling Dinkler IV, Kate & David deKay, Kit Fritchie, Tania Hahn, Penn & TJ Iarocci, Yvette Jones, Luke & Catherine Lemoine, Louisiana Policy Institute for Children, Christine Mitchell, Margaret Montgomery-Richard, Ph.D., Lynn & Digges Morgan, Allie Shapiro Dandry & Bobby Dandry, and LaVerne Toombs.

The 2025 Sponsors are: Presenting Sponsors Cathy & Walter Isaacson and Gulf Coast Bank & Trust; Patron Sponsors Goldring Family Foundation and Sazerac; Golden Harvest Sponsor Ernest Price Jr. & Crystal Marks-Price; and Twilight Sponsor Penn & TJ Iarocci.

About Clover

Founded in 1896 with a mission to educate children, strengthen families, and build community, Clover (formerly Kingsley House) envisions a city and region where all young children are ready to succeed and all citizens are healthy and economically stable. Serving individuals at every stage of life, Clover helps break the cycle of poverty by providing critical supports to children, parents, seniors, and veterans. Learn more at clovernola.org.

###